UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK
MANHATTAN DIVISION

IN RE:

NEELAM TANEJA, AKA NEELAM UPPAL, DEBTOR.

CHAPTER 13

CASE NO. 16-12356

JUDGE: James L. Garrity, Jr.

OBJECTION OF NATIONSTAR MORTGAGE LLC TO (1) DEBTOR'S MOTION FOR SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATIONS OF THE AUTOMATIC STAY AND (2) DEBTOR'S MOTION TO AVOID LIEN AND (3) DEBTOR'S MOTION FOR CRAM DOWN

Nationstar Mortgage LLC ("Nationstar"), by and through its attorneys, Shapiro, DiCaro & Barak, LLC, submits the instant Objection to numerous motions filed by the Debtor as follows: (1) Debtor's Motion for Sanctions for Violations of the Automatic Stay, dated September 21, 2016 and found at ECF Docket No. 23 (the "Stay Violation Motion"), (2) Debtor's Motion to Avoid Lien, dated September 21, 2016 and found ECF Docket No. 29 (the "Motion to Avoid Lien"), and (3) Debtor's Motion for Cram Down, dated November 17, 2016 and found ECF Docket No. 55 (the "Cramdown Motion"; collectively, the above referenced motions referred to as the "Debtor's Motions"), and respectfully states:

BACKGROUND

1. On August 15, 2016, debtor Neelam Taneja, aka Neelam Uppal (the "Debtor") filed a Voluntary Petition in this Bankruptcy Case under Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code.
2. The instant case is the fifth bankruptcy filing by the Debtor. The Debtor has previously filed four bankruptcy petitions in the Middle District of Florida.
3. The first case was filed in the Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida as Chapter 7 (subsequently converted to Chapter 13) Case No. 8:00-bk-09734-TEB on June 21, 2000 (the "First Case"). The First Case was a barebones filing, without any schedules. The First Case was thereafter closed following the Debtor's discharge by Order entered July 21, 2003 as ECF Doc. No. 142.

4. The second case was filed, pro se, in the Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida as Chapter 13 Case No. 8:12-bk-18946-CPM on December 19, 2012 (the "Second Case"). The Second Case was also a barebones filing, without any schedules. The Second Case was thereafter dismissed under 11 U.S.C. § 521(i) for the Debtor's failure to file information required, as under 11 U.S.C. § 521(a)(1), and a dismissal Order was entered on January 11, 2013 as ECF Doc. No. 15. Subsequently the Debtor filed Motions to Impose the Automatic Stay and for Reconsideration of Dismissal, both of which were denied.

5. The third case was filed in the Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida as Chapter 13 Case No. 8:13-bk-05601-CPM on April 29, 2013 (the "Third Case"). The Third Case was dismissed due to a failure to satisfy the statutory requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 109(e) and a demonstrated lack of good faith by Order entered September 17, 2013 as ECF Doc. No. 81. The Third Case is currently still active through a number of ongoing Motions, and importantly, has not been closed.

6. The fourth case was filed, pro se, in the Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida as Chapter 13 Case No. 8:15-bk-00594-CPM on January 22, 2015 (the "Fourth Case"). The Fourth Case was similarly a barebones filing, without any schedules. The Fourth Case was thereafter dismissed again by a failure to satisfy the statutory requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 109(e) and a demonstrated lack of good faith by Order entered September 1, 2015 as ECF Doc. No. 231. The fourth Case was thereafter closed on March 22, 2016.

7. The fifth and instant case was filed in the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York as Chapter 13 Case No. 16-12356-jlg on August 15, 2016 (the “Fifth Case” or “Instant Case”). The Fifth Case was similarly a barebones filing.

8. Upon the filing of the case, the Debtor has filed numerous duplicative and unclear motions.

9. Nationstar is responding to all of the Debtor’s Motions in a single omnibus response because the Debtor’s Motions seem to all be based on the same underlying accusation of violations of the automatic stay, and in the case of the Stay Violation Motion and the Lien Avoidance motion, seem to be nearly identical.

DISCUSSION

I. Stay Violation Motion

10. On September 21, 2016, the Debtor filed the Stay Violation Motion, found at ECF Docket No. 23.

11. The Stay Violation Motion is unclear in that it does not actually list any affirmative action by Nationstar purported to be in violation of the stay.

12. Upon investigation, it appears that the Debtor’s motion is based on the sale of the property, which occurred on August 16, 2016, the day after the Petition was filed.

13. Nationstar contends that this sale was not a violation of the automatic stay because the Debtor had two bankruptcy cases pending within the prior year, and the automatic stay would therefore not have gone into effect pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(4)(A)(i).

14. Alternatively, if the stay was in effect, Nationstar contends that a motion for nunc pro tunc relief from the automatic stay is warranted, and seeks to have a determination of this matter adjourned pending the determination of Nationstar’s forthcoming motion seeking (1) In

Rem Relief from the automatic stay, (2) seeking to confirm absence of the stay and (3) seeking nunc pro tunc relief from the date of the filing of the petition, retroactively validating the post-petition foreclosure sale.

15. Finally, assuming arguendo that the Court finds that the stay was in effect at the time of the sale, and assuming that the Court determines that nunc pro tunc relief from the automatic stay is not warranted, then Nationstar contends that the foreclosure sale is void as a violation of the automatic stay, and contends that the violation of the automatic stay was not willful as foreclosure counsel for Nationstar only received actual notice of the bankruptcy filing the morning of the sale, and immediately notified the state court of the filing and unsuccessfully attempted to cancel the sale.

The Stay did Not Come Into Effect Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(4)(A)(i)

16. Section 362(c)(4)(A)(i) says, in relevant part, that “if 2 or more . . . cases of the debtor were pending within the previous year but were dismissed, . . . the stay under subsection (a) shall not go into effect upon the filing of the later case.”

17. The automatic stay did not come into effect upon the filing of the Instant Case because the Debtor had two bankruptcy cases pending within the prior year.

18. The Third Case was pending within the prior year. Although the dismissal order was entered on September 17, 2013, the case is still open and active. No order has yet been entered closing the Third Case. A copy of the Docket in the Third Case is annexed hereto as Exhibit “A”.

19. On October 16, 2016, the Court issued an order with respect to an ongoing dispute between the Debtor and former counsel to the Debtor, resolving a trial that had taken place in December 2015 and February 2016, all within the prior one year of the Instant Case.

20. Subsequent to the dismissal, on October 22, 2013, an order of the Court was entered reinstating the Case.

21. Debtor has continued to actively participate in the Third Case. In addition to numerous filings and disputes with the Trustee and various parties, the Debtor continued to affirmatively avail himself of the court's resources by bringing a string of motions and then repeatedly seeking reconsideration of unfavorable decisions by the court on those motions. Some examples of these numerous post dismissal filings are as follows:

- a. Motion for Sanctions against Wells Fargo on October 11, 2013 at ECF Docket No. 83.
- b. Motion to Reinstate Debtor's Motion for Violations of the Automatic Stay against Bank of America, filed on October 23, 2013 at ECF Docket No. 89.
- c. Motion Objecting to 2004 Exam filed on October 24, 2013 at ECF Docket No. 88.
- d. Motion for Bank of America to Release Garnished Accounts, filed on January 6, 2014 at ECF Docket No. 154.
- e. Motion for Rehearing of Court's Ruling on 2/4/2014 re: Debtor's Motion against Wells Fargo Bank, filed on April 21, 2014 at ECF Docket No. 184.
- f. Motion for Rehearing of Court's Ruling on 2/4/2014 re: Debtor's Motions against Bank of America, filed on April 21, 2014 at ECF Docket No. 185.
- g. Motion to Stay Order Granting Motion for Summary Judgment, filed on June 20, 2014 at ECF Docket No. 216.
- h. Motion For Contempt of Court Order against Bank of America, filed on June 25, 2014 at ECF Docket No. 224.

- i. On August 11, 2014, the Debtor Filed a Notice of Appeal at Docket No. 279, appealing the court's decision to deny the motion for sanctions against Wells Fargo and Bank of America. The appeal was later dismissed for failure to pay the associated fees.
- j. Motion to Continue/Reschedule Hearing On Motion for Reconsideration of Order on Expedited Motion to Determine Whether Adequate Protection Payments are to be Paid to Creditors and Trust Funds Paid to Attorney Fees, filed December 28, 2015 at ECF Docket No. 396.
- k. Motion for Extension of Time to File Summation, filed March 21, 2016, at ECF Docket No. 401.
- l. Closing Argument (Summation), filed May 2, 2016 at ECF Docket No. 404.
- m. Response to Jill McDonald's Summation, filed May 27, 2016 at ECF Docket No. 406.

22. In the year prior to the instant filing, hearings took place in this case on December 9, 2015 and February 24, 2016.

23. The Third case was therefore pending within the previous year of the filing of the Instant Case.

24. There can be no dispute that the Fourth Case was pending within the prior year. The Fourth case was dismissed in September 2015, and was subsequently closed in March 2016, both of which dates are clearly within the previous year of the filing of the Instant Case.

25. Therefore, Nationstar contends that the automatic stay did not come into effect on the filing of the instant case.

Nunc Pro Tunc Relief from the Automatic Stay is Warranted

26. When an action has been taken in violation of the automatic stay, that action can be made legitimate by an order retroactively validating the action. In re WorldCom, Inc., 325 B.R. 511, 519 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2005). Because the automatic stay is not “an immutable article of faith,” the Court has discretionary power to annul the stay in appropriate circumstances. In re Soares, 107 F.3d 969, 976 (1st Cir. 1997).

27. Nationstar is currently in preparation for a motion for In Rem Relief from the automatic stay. Assuming arguendo that the Court finds that the stay was in effect at the time of the sale, a request for nunc pro tunc relief from the automatic stay will be requested.

28. Courts in this Circuit have applied the Stockwell factors in determining whether nunc pro tunc relief from the automatic stay is warranted. In re Campbell, 356 B.R.722 (W.D. Mo. 2006); In re Stockwell, 262 B.R. 275, 281 (Bankr. Vt.2001). The factors are as follows:

- a. Whether the creditor had actual or constructive knowledge of the bankruptcy filing and, therefore, of the stay;
- b. Whether the debtor has acted in bad faith;
- c. Whether there is equity in the property of the estate;
- d. Whether the property is necessary for an effective reorganization;
- e. Whether grounds for relief from stay exist and a motion, if filed, would have been granted prior to the violation;
- f. Whether failure to grant retroactive relief would cause unnecessary expense to the creditor;
- g. Whether the creditor has detrimentally changed its position on the basis of the action taken;
- h. Whether the creditor took some affirmative action post-petition to bring about the violation of the stay; and
- i. Whether the creditor promptly seeks a retroactive lifting of the stay and approval of the action taken.

29. Nationstar contends that the factors herein strongly favor the nunc pro tunc relief, and will lay out the relevant points in greater detail in a motion for relief.

30. Nationstar only got notice of the bankruptcy filing on the morning of the sale, and promptly notified the court of the filing, but the sale was conducted anyway.

31. The Debtor is clearly acting in bad faith. She is a vexatious litigant, a serial bankruptcy filer, and has commenced numerous meritless pleadings and numerous barebones petitions.

32. There is no equity in the property. A valuation of the property is annexed hereto as Exhibit “B”, evidencing a value of $610,000.00. The total amount due to Nationstar exceed $800,000.00

33. Grounds for relief from the automatic stay certainly exist.

34. Assuming, arguendo, that the Court finds that the stay was in effect on the date of the sale, Nationstar requests an opportunity for the forthcoming Motion, seeking among other things nunc pro tunc relief, to be heard and decided before proceeding with any determination with respect to a stay violation.

If Nationstar Violated the Automatic Stay, Then it’s Violation was not Willful

35. Assuming, arguendo, that the court does determine that the stay was in effect on the date of the sale, and that nunc pro tunc relief from the stay is not warranted, then Nationstar contends that the sale of the property was in violation for the stay, but that this violation was not a willful violation on Nationstar’s point.

36. Leading up to the foreclosure sale, the Debtor had attempted multiple emergency filings to prevent the sale, none of which had been successful.

37. Foreclosure counsel for Nationstar in Florida made a motion to cancel sale. This motion is annexed hereto as Exhibit “C”. On August 12, 2016, the state court denied the motion, directing that the sale is to take place as scheduled.

38. The foreclosure court in Pinellas County has an administrative order in place that requires a court order for cancellation of any foreclosure sale for any reason.

39. McCalla Raymer Pierce, LLC (“MRC”) is the firm that represented Nationstar in the foreclosure action of the Property.

40. Upon information and belief, MRC conducted PACER searches on the Debtor both the day prior to the sale and the morning of the sale. MRC only became aware of the bankruptcy filing the morning of the sale.

41. Upon information and belief, MRC promptly notified the court by e-filing the notice of the bankruptcy and followed up via email at 9:48 AM, and sought cancelation of the sale. The email correspondence in question is annexed hereto as Exhibit “D”.

42. The Debtor similarly made a motion to cancel the sale as a result of the bankruptcy filing. The court denied this motion as well. The order denying the request to cancel the sale is annexed hereto as Exhibit “E”.

43. Therefore, Nationstar is not guilty of willfully violating the stay because immediately upon getting notice of the filing, it took action to inform the court and cancel the sale.

44. Upon information and belief, neither Nationstar nor MRC has taken any affirmative action in furtherance of the foreclosure or the of the sale itself after learning of the bankruptcy filing.

45. If the sale is found to be in violation of the stay, Nationstar concedes that such sale is void, and would not oppose an order of this court voiding such sale.

II. Motion to Avoid Lien

46. On September 21, 2016, the Debtor filed the Motion to Avoid Lien, found at ECF Docket No. 29.

47. The Debtor's Motion to Avoid Lien is essentially a re-filing of the Debtor's Stay Violation Motion.

48. With the exception to the first paragraph, this motion appears to be entirely duplicative of the Stay Violation Motion.

49. The first paragraph cites to 11 U.S.C. Section 522, the provision permitting the avoidance of judicial liens that impair the homestead exemption, as the statutory basis for the Motion to Avoid Lien.

50. Nationstar's lien is a consensual mortgage, not a judicial lien. Nor is the property the Debtor's homestead, and therefore the Debtor does not have a homestead exemption to be impaired.

51. Nationstar asks that the Motion to Avoid Lien be denied in its entirety.

III. Cram Down Motion

52. On November 17, 2016, the Debtor filed the Cramdown Motion, found at ECF Docket No. 55.

53. The Debtor's Cramdown Motion is without merit.

54. The Debtor's Cramdown Motion proposes to cram down Nationstar's interest in the Property at a value a mere fraction of the appraised value of the property on the basis that the bank violated the stay.

55. As discussed above, Nationstar contends that the automatic stay was not violated.

56. Even assuming arguendo that the stay was violated, such violation does not give the Debtor the ability to cram down the property through the plan to an arbitrary value that is a mere fraction of the value of the property.

57. Nationstar asserts that the property is valued at $610,000 per the valuation, annexed hereto as Exhibit “B”.

58. The Debtor values the property at $440,000 in the Cramdown Motion and in the filed Schedule A.

59. Therefore, the Debtor's proposed Cramdown Motion seeking to cram down Nationstar's interest in the Property for $60,000 should be denied.

CONCLUSION

60. Nationstar contends that the Motion for Stay Violations should be denied in its entirety because the automatic stay was not in effect by virtue of the Debtor's prior filings.

61. If the stay was in effect, Nationstar intends to bring a motion for nunc pro tunc relief, alleviating any potential violation and retroactively approving the sale of the property.

62. If the court finds that the stay was in effect, and if nunc pro tunc relief is not warranted, Nationstar has shown evidence neither Nationstar nor its Florida foreclosure counsel willfully violated the stay because counsel for Nationstar promptly notified the state court of the bankruptcy filing and unsuccessfully sought cancellation of the sale.

63. The Lien Strip Motion is completely duplicative of the Motion for Stay Violations and should be denied.

64. The Cramdown Motion is not supported by law and impermissibly attempts to cramdown Nationstar's lien for less than the value of the premises.

WHEREFORE, Nationstar respectfully requests that the Court deny the Debtor's Motions, or for such other relief as the Court finds just and proper.
